

2022 Call for Board of Directors Nominations Quint Development Corporation

Quint uses a community economic development approach to enhance the economic and social well-being of Saskatoon's west side core neighbourhoods. Quint's focuses its work in the areas of housing, employment and training, and social enterprise development.

Quint strives to have 2/3 of its board comprised of people who live and/or work in the core neighbourhoods and aims to ensure a diversity on the Board that reflects the communities we serve.

Quint Development Corporation's Board of Directors is currently seeking nominations for Director Positions to be elected at the AGM in June 2022.

Board members responsibilities include:

1. Regularly attend Board meetings. The Board meets around 10 times per year;
2. Be a member of one of the two standing committees – Finance, and Governance;
3. Understand the roles and responsibilities of a Board member;
4. Utilize personal and professional skills, relationships and knowledge for the advancement of Quint's mission.

The Current Board of Directors is a diverse group with a wide range of skills. We are inviting individuals who have an interest in community economic development in the west side the core neighbourhoods. In identifying suitable candidates the nominations committee shall consider candidates:

- From a wide range of backgrounds;
- That have enough time available to devote to the position;
- That have an understanding of west side core neighbourhood issues.

Please note there are 2 deadlines in submitting your Board nomination.

- 1) Board positions are open to members of Quint Development Corporation. Deadline to become a member before submitting your nomination to the board is May 16, 2022.
