

Outreach Support Worker

Build Up Saskatoon (BUS) is a construction social-enterprise within Quint Development that seeks to employ individuals who experience multiple barriers to employment including issues such as previous contact with the justice system, housing insecurity, lack of education and experience, etc.

The Outreach Support Worker helps develop strategies designed to reduce personal or professional barriers in the lives of our participants.

40 hours (Mon-Fri), Blue Cross, RRSP matching, $23.69/hr

DUTIES:

- Participate in hiring, onboarding and intake processes of crew
- With crew, identify personal and professional goals and develop strategies for achieving them
- Identify and address limiting patterns and barriers for crew
- Maintain case files to support ongoing follow-up
- Identify and understand community services, education and training opportunities/resources
- Identify and schedule skill training plan including tickets, certification and licensing
- Develop job transition processes for participants exiting the program, encompassing employment, educational or social support options
- Develop and maintain networks with local stakeholders/agencies to enhance transitional opportunities
- Occasional crew transport as needed

SKILLS:

- Outgoing and confident personality
- Ability to build relationships and gain trust
- Empathetic, patient, non-judgmental attitude
- Experience working with a diverse population
- Excellent problem solving
- Strong time management, organizational and written communication skills
- Ability to establish priorities and proactively track and report data

EDUCATION AND EXPERIENCE

- Knowledge of the systemic issues of poverty and barriers faced by marginalized people seeking employment
- Extensive knowledge of community resources
- Familiar with Harm Reduction practices
- Experience in a related human/social service role
- Education/Training in a related field

CONDITION OF EMPLOYMENT:

Valid driver's license and access to a vehicle, Criminal Record and Vulnerable Sector Check

Quint Development Corporation strives to employ a workforce that is representative of the neighbourhoods in which it operates.

TO APPLY: Submit your cover letter explaining why you would be a good fit along with your resume by 4pm, Thursday June 18, 2026 to:

Quint Development Corporation
Attention: Julia McCormick
101 - 1120 20th Street West
Email: julia@quintsaskatoon.ca